Dear Friends in North Las Vegas,

I am Janice Ridondo, I want to be your City

Councilperson, and I want you to know who I am. I am campaigning for this office because of you, to help keep you safe, and to help maintain your quality of life in North

Las Vegas.

I was born in Providence, Rhode Island to a stay-at-a-home Mom and a blue collar, hard working Dad.

I lost the love of my life in 1978, to a fatal car crash; the memory still hurts today. I was blessed to begin working with autistic children and young adults soon after as a classroom assistant and residential coordinator.

Those life experiences shaped who I am today.

I worked a decade in customer service, becoming a District Manager for Blockbuster Video. Owned and lost a small business in North Las Vegas. Owned and lost (a short sale) a beautiful home in the area. Like you, I have experienced tough times, but I have persevered and I have never been without a smile, because I have always had a good job, helping other people, and that is what I do best.

I have served the public, helping people, for nearly eight years in Clark County working for two county commissioners, covering nearly all of North Las Vegas, as a community liaison. I have been a Democrat nearly all my life.

I most recently founded a small non-profit, animal rescue in North Las Vegas.

I have the experience, the temperament, the passion, the energy, the maturity, the desire—and for me it is a call of duty—to work for the residents of North Las Vegas. Our city is in real trouble, but I know with a change in leadership, a new direction, and a lot of hard work, we can save this beautiful City that we all call home.
